Item 8.01. Other Events.

In a letter dated March 6, 2014, The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC ("NASDAQ") notified ChinaNet Online Holdings, Inc. (the "Company") that it has regained compliance with the minimum bid price requirement of $1.00 per share for continued listing on the stock exchange. It's the Company's common stock achieved a closing bid price of more than $1.00 for 10 consecutive business days from February 20, 2014 to March 5, 2014.

On April 30, 2013, the Company received a letter from NASDAQ stating that for 30 consecutive business days immediately preceding the date of the letter the Company's common stock did not maintain a minimum closing bid price of $1.00 per share ("Minimum Bid Price Requirement") as required by NASDAQ Listing Rule 5450(a)(1). The Company was provided 180 calendar days to regain compliance.

In a letter dated October 28, 2013, NASDAQ notified the Company that it is eligible for an additional 180-day period, or until April 28, 2014, to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement. In connection with the grant of the additional 180-day period, the listing of the Company's common stock was transferred, at the Company's request, to the NASDAQ Capital Market under the existing ticker symbol (CNET) at the opening of business on October 29, 2013. In the October 28, 2013 letter, NASDAQ stated that although the Company had not regained compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Requirement by October 28, 2013, it was eligible for an additional 180-day compliance period, or until April 28, 2014, to cure the deficiency with respect to its bid price.

On March 10, 2014, the Company issued a press release with respect to regaining compliance with the NASDAQ listing requirement, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

ChinaNet Online Holdings Regain Compliance with NASDAQ Minimum Bid Price Rule

BEIJING, March 10, 2014 -- ChinaNet Online Holdings, Inc. (Nasdaq Capital Market: CNET) (the "ChinaNet" or "Company"), a leading B2B (business to business) Internet technology company focusing on providing online-to-offline ("O2O") sales channel expansion services for small and medium-sized enterprises ("SMEs") and entrepreneurial management and networking services for entrepreneurs in the People's Republic of China, today announced that on March 6 2014, it received a letter from The NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (the "NASDAQ") notifying the Company that it has regained compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Rule (as defined below) for continued listing set forth in NASDAQ Listing Rule 5450(a)(1), as the common stock had achieved a closing bid price of $1.00 or more for 10 consecutive business days.

On April 30, 2013, the Company received a letter from the NASDAQ Staff stating that, based upon the closing bid price for the previous 30 consecutive business days, the Company no longer met the requirement set forth in NASDAQ Listing Rule 5450(a)(1), which requires listed securities to maintain a minimum bid price of $1.00 per share (the "Minimum Bid Price Rule"). The NASDAQ Staff also notified the Company that it had been granted a grace period of 180 calendar days to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Rule. In a letter dated October 28, 2013, the NASDAQ staff notified the Company that the listing of the Company's common stock was transferred, at the Company's request, to the NASDAQ Capital Market under the existing ticker symbol (CNET) at the opening of business on October 29, 2013. In connection with this transfer, the Company is eligible for an additional 180-day period, or until April 28, 2014, to regain compliance with the Minimum Bid Price Rule. In the March 6, 2014 letter, the NASDAQ Staff informed the Company that it had determined that for the last 10 consecutive business days, from February 20, 2014 to March 5, 2014, the closing bid price of the Company's common stock had been at $1.00 or greater. Accordingly, the Company has regained compliance with the NASDAQ Minimum Bid Price Rule.
