Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

Transfer of Listing

On September 2, 2010, we received a letter from the NASDAQ Stock Market LLC (“NASDAQ”) approving our application to list our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Market. On June 10, 2010, our Board of Directors authorized the officers of our company to apply for the listing of our common stock on NASDAQ and withdraw the listing of our common stock from the NYSE Amex stock exchange (the “NYSE AMEX”). We provided NYSE Amex with written notice on September 3, 2010 of our intention to withdraw the listing of our common stock from NYSE Amex. We expect that our common stock will begin trading on the NASDAQ Global Market under the symbol “CNET” on September 14, 2010. Our common stock will continue to trade on NYSE Amex until market close on September 13, 2010.

A copy of the press release announcing the delisting of our stock from NYSE Amex and the listing of our common stock on the NASDAQ Global Market is filed as Exhibit 99.1 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.

99.1 Press Release, dated September 3, 2010.

ChinaNet Online Holdings To Begin Trading on The NASDAQ Global Market

BEIJING, September 3 -- ChinaNet Online Holdings, Inc. ("ChinaNet", NYSE Amex: CNET), a leading full-service media development, and internet technology company for small and medium-sized enterprises (SMEs) in the People's Republic of China, today announced that its board of directors has approved the decision to switch the listing of its common stock from NYSE Amex to the NASDAQ Global Market and that it has been approved for such listing. The Company currently expects that its stock will commence trading on NASDAQ on September 14, 2010 and will continue to be listed under the ticker symbol "CNET". The Company's common stock will continue to trade on the NYSE Amex until the market close on September 13, 2010.

Announcing the listing transition, Mr. Handong Cheng, Chairman and CEO of the Company, said, "Given ChinaNet's continued success and ongoing opportunities, moving to the electronic market model will broaden our visibility to investors. We believe that NASDAQ's market maker structure will also provide our company increased trading liquidity, while at the same time providing investors with the best prices and the fastest execution."
